

LAMAR SOFTWARE
SPECIALISTS IN BUSINESS CONTROL SYSTEMS

Labor Efficiency Reporting

Labor charges of direct hourly employees against production orders will track both the employee actual rate and the standard rate of the operation in which the charges are being made. In addition, the number of units completed as a part of the labor charge will also be recorded in the production transaction.

Based on the combination of hours charged and completed units, the employee efficiency can be calculated for the employee and for the overall operation.

For more information, connect to: <http://www.lamarsoftware.com/>