

LAMAR SOFTWARE, INC.
SPECIALISTS IN MANUFACTURING AND DISTRIBUTION

Work Center Definitions / Work Center Calendar

Work centers are used to define the various production areas and includes the number of personnel available in the work center and the length of the queue time that will be used in production scheduling.

In defining the production calendar, the user will be able to specify the number of hours available in each defined work center, and on each shift available in a work center.